“Serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.”

~Deuteronomy 10:12

On Dec. 31st, 2008, Etoonin' Inc. was dedicated as a public ministry to the Lord Jesus Christ. On Jan. 11th, 2011, All for the Lord superseded Etoonin'. Nov. 1st, 2011 marked the start of my musical career by playing a portion of a worship song by Bethany Dillon on the piano. My life's goal is to become a musician to glorify the Lord. I will succeed. I always do.

On the subject of my finances you will notice I am completely candid. I spend almost 10 times more than I earn. My personal income is represented solely by my business, All for the Lord, and jobs (first two income categories). I am proud to demonstrate that my charitable giving exceeds my spending in all other categories excluding housing but including entertainment. In fact, my charitable giving exceeds my personal income. I ended 2011 with just 1 dollar to my name. I am provided for by God.

My goals in 2012 are to:

1. Develop my musical talent.
2. Develop my Graphic Design skills by attending a four year university starting in the fall, full-time.
3. Glorify and honor God more with actions than with words.
4. Be blessed beyond my wildest imagination yet again.
