The secret about satan

Jan. 18^{4/5}, 2026

Satan is bitter. Not only is he going to hell, but he wants you to as well.

But he won't be tormenting people there... everyone will be alone in suffering.

I always thought I'd want to ask God why satan opposed Him when I get to Heaven.

But really, there is no good reason. It's insane. And the devil will probably not be remembered in Heaven.

God's not going to be able to explain it.

Satan can make us really suffer down here, but he can't touch us in Heaven...

Romans 8:18

I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed to us later.

Who can resist God?

Feb. 4th, 2026

We all grow up and our parents try to provide a stable, safe environment, but, like Jesus, I feel like I have no place to lie my head.

I mean, I've always had housing, but I'm always moving.

Even criminals use their blinkers when racing away from cops.

And even the vilest person usually brushes their teeth every day.

We receive a standard education, learn to read and write, and then we go on to be used either for good or evil purposes in our adult life, however God chooses.

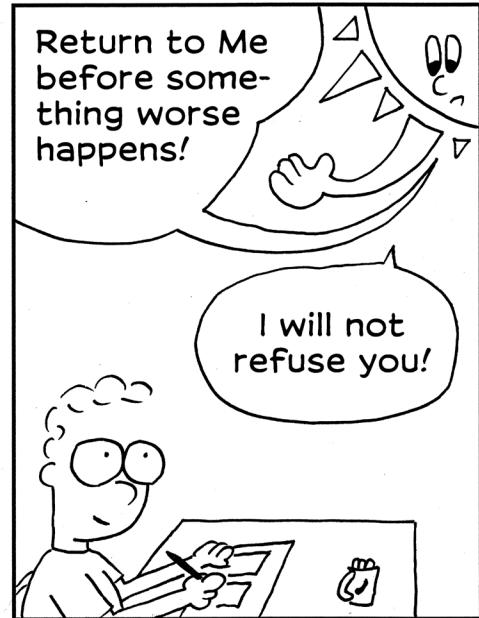

The point is that simple beginnings lead to adult lives that accomplish purpose whether we remember our upbringing or not...

We are all part of the Story God is telling, whether good or bad.

God's Wisdom...

He who did not spare His own Son, but gave Him up for us all – how will He not also, along with Him, graciously give us all things?

Romans 8:32 NIV

© 2026 Jim Bures

Which of you fathers, if your son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead? Or if he asks for an egg, will give him a scorpion? (Except for Pedro's Father.) If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in Heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!

Luke 11:11-13 NIV
(Italics Added)

Repent, then, and turn to God, so that your sins may be wiped out, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, and that He may send the Messiah, who has been appointed for you – even Jesus.

Acts 3:19-20 NIV

I love to appear wise, but I have to be careful not to appear wise in my own eyes. Etoonin' is a publication mainly read by other Christians (I think), but I really mean it for the unbeliever. I hope to illuminate information that could be helpful. Many may wonder, or maybe it is in my own head, why I write so much about the Bible and the Story of Jesus so often. I've seen how other artists write subtly, and try to tell new stories. But I speak plainly because the Story of Christ is the One True Story! It is a story that really matters. I give my life to tell it, over and over, because God is plain: in the open and clear. He does not deceive like satan. He wants to be known as He is. Knowing Him makes all the difference in the world.

Our purpose is to know Him, be loved by Him & worship Him: this is Eternal Life.

Suffering is painful, but it can be a gift. Nobody wants to suffer, but when we share in suffering, we share in Jesus's life. He suffered more than all people combined. He suffered and died to take our sin upon Him on the cross so we can be forgiven. Because of His suffering, we can enter into Heaven, if we place our faith in Him. Through suffering, we get to know God much more intimately. He shows up. You can be saved at any point, no matter what you've done, by placing your faith in Jesus.

I remember the worst year of my life, 2012. I felt abject pain, pressed up against the border of despair as I suffered poverty, anxiety, and difficulty making friends. I want to be there for you if you are suffering like this: looking darkness in the eye. Sharing in Christ's suffering is not something we do alone: we do it together. I want to push back the dark in your life. It is funny, because we feel our suffering so palpably, but I believe God thinks nothing of it. The keys to life and death are in His hands and what upsets us is nothing to Him. We fear death, but God is real. He is there. He tells us to be strong and courageous. He is with us wherever we go. He is not only rooting for us, but actively getting us through this life. He loves you!

I want to do something oh so important. I want to love you. Oh Lord, help me out of my sin. I feel my division making: the desire of satan. Open my heart, Lord. Give our lives meaning. Life is not about not sinning, it is about letting a loving God take our sinful lives in His hands. Becoming a man, to me, means acting in love and wisdom despite the emotions within. Soldiers don't get involved in civilian affairs. Let us use our finite resources to love, to push back the darkness for others. Let us sacrifice our lives on the altar of God. We are co-heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him. (Romans 8:17)
